

Dear Applicants!

In 2020, the Faculty of International Relations of the al-Farabi Kazakh National University celebrated the 25th anniversary. During this time, hundreds of specialists have been trained who have made a great contribution to strengthening the foreign policy positions of the Republic of Kazakhstan. The history of the faculty dates back to a difficult period of the formation and making up of the Kazakhstani statehood. Since then, we have passed a long and very eventful path. Today the faculty is a large educational and scientific center that makes a significant contribution to the training of highly qualified specialists in international relations. Using successfully modern educational technologies, the faculty is aptly considered to be the leading center for training of specialists for the field of international relations and foreign policy, international law and the world economy.

The graduates of the faculty work in the legislative, executive and judicial branches of power of the Republic, in law enforcement bodies and special services, in commercial structures and public organizations, in international organizations, in the field of science and education. Many of them have brought fame to the faculty. The high level of teaching and vast research traditions enable us to look to the future with confidence and optimism.

We wish you success in choosing your future profession. We believe in you, and do believe in us you too!

STUDENT REVIEWS

I arrived in Kazakhstan at the beginning of January 2020. I remember when I arrived, Almaty was covered with snow, I well remember the road from the airport from which the acquaintance with the new place and culture began. Before me was a whole semester of new experience and knowledge. I had a chance to study at the Department of Diplomatic Translation at KazNU, where I was welcomed. I have attended various interesting disciplines in which I studied languages and international relations. The teachers were always responsive and competent. In addition, fellow students showed friendliness and introduced me to the city and its attractions. I got to know the local culture and customs. In general, half a year spent within the walls of the university and outside it is an unforgettable experience that I can confidently recommend!

*Rafael Faizon, 1st year Master Student ERASMUS
University of Poitiers, France*

In 2016, after graduating from the Lyceum, I entered the Al-Farabi Kazakh National University at the Faculty of International Relations. During these 4 years of study at KazNU, I can say that thanks to competent, demanding teachers, I learned a lot, took a place at the republican Olympiad in international law, participated in international conferences «Farabi-Alemi», was a moderator of an interfaculty competition, was honored to study a semester in academic mobility ... Thus, KazNU witnessed how I comprehensively developed and grew over all these years.

Student life was very eventful and bright, thanks to the student dean's office and classmates. The years that I spent at the university were definitely the happiest and most fruitful.

Therefore, I want to express my gratitude to the entire teaching staff of the Department of International Law. And also I want to note LB Nysanbekova, for her special work and experience, ZM Baimagambetova, for support and guidance! Thanks to KazNU for the opportunities provided.
